

P 118 mywarehousehome.com/newspaper

INTERIOR TRENDS | HAIRPIN LEGS

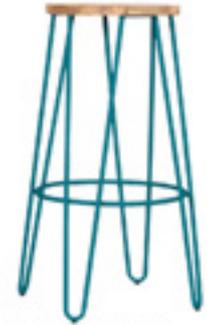

LEGS TO STAND ON
 These are our picks of the best hairpin leg furniture. From a set of four to a dining table, here are our picks of the best hairpin leg furniture. View all

Harold 700 in Old Gold
 €150, prettypegs.com

Collins table lamp in Ochre Yellow
 £25, made.com

Hairpin stool with natural wood seat in teal
 From £39, cultfurniture.com

Northmore Minor coffee table
 £365, fook.org.uk

Hairpin leg panel bench in Tumeric Velvet
 £295, kenseibutton.co.uk

Bend Rules

The hairpin leg was invented in 1941. Reducing material costs it defined wartime design. But the quirky yet sturdy steel form is just as popular in modern homes.

Kyoto dining chair
 £148 for a set of two, twosidedflora.com

Pointille media unit in ash and grey
 £295, made.com

STACKING'S UP

Flourens Knoll's popular wire based Model 75 stool is making a comeback after fifty years. In celebration of the 50th year of the legendary designer and former Knoll President, it's been revived from the Knoll archive and is being reintroduced as the Flourens Knoll Hairpin Stacking Table. Painted steel wire hairpin legs and a laminate table top combine in this modern day stacking table design. View all

Castella bench in Mustard by Adolfo Abejón
 £700, baul.co.uk

Flourens Knoll stool photography by Paul Goodwin courtesy of Knoll Inc. Archive image featuring the Knoll chair and original Flourens Knoll Model 75 Stacking stool, courtesy of the Knoll website